

Counselor who makes a Difference for Students' Success

It is 9:30 a.m. on a Thursday morning in late May at North Hill's James Monroe High School. The high school's college counselor Neena Agnihotri...

Peer Mentors Attend Conference About Empowering Hispanics in Education

Two Building Connections for Success' peer mentors joined nine California State University Northridge students for the Hispanic Association

Two Majors Unite in BCFS Service Learning to Benefit Students' Education

With spring semester right around the corner California State University, Northridge students will be choosing from a list of courses that will provide them with the knowledge to further their career. A Service-Learning through Program Evaluation course allows students to learn

New Service Learning Project Provides Practical Experience for Students

Building Connections for Success Title V program includes a new service learning project in the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences. Assistant Professor Dr. Stefanie Drew is excited about this new development and for California State University, Northridge

This project is supported through a generous grant from the U.S. Department of Education's Hispanic Serving Institutions Title V Program.

© California State University, Northridge 18111 Nordhoff Street, Northridge, CA 91330-8372
Phone: (818) 677-3600

Find Us Online!

